

Description:

University of Malakand has a good network of pedestal pathways through out the university surrounded by greenery and trees.

1. There are separator between road for vehicle and pedestrian path.
2. In each department there are ramps and guiding blocks which have suitable design for pedestrian having physical disabilities.
3. Solar Street Lights for pedestrian which control the solar street lights automatically through the intensity of light.